FISH HOUSE & OYSTER BAR

Tally Fish House and Oyster Bar was built in 2020 by Amanda and Chip Evans. The restaurant's food, service and atmosphere are a collective nod to their love of the unique culture and natural abundance found throughout Tallahassee and the broader Forgotten Coast region of the Florida panhandle.

Chip grew up in Tallahassee and spent the formative years of his youth being shaped by its people and natural surroundings. Chip met his wife Amanda, originally of Gainesville, Georgia, in 2009, and the two married in 2012 in a location perfectly suited to their collective disposition - on the docks of downtown Apalachicola under a brilliant late Fall sunset. After leaving active duty military service in 2018, they deliberately chose to return to this city to raise their three children, be closer to extended family, and live their lives in a community whose rich cultural values and characteristics very much matched their own.

Tally Fish House is, at its core, about honoring the values the family holds dear; community, quality, respect and service. It's a place where families are welcome and fresh, wild caught seafood and oysters are the norm - not the daily special.
